

Parish Office Closing

Based on directives from the Diocese of Columbus, beginning Friday, March 20, 2020, the Saint Thomas Aquinas Parish Office will be closed until further notice.

If in need, you can reach any of our staff members by voicemail or email. There will be a staff member here each morning to attend to phone calls, voice mail messages, parish mail and other parish business; but the office will not be open for in person visits.

If there is a sacramental emergency and you need to reach Father Sullivan, he may be reached by calling the Parish Office number. At the voice prompt press 1. Your call will then be directed to him. If available, he will answer the call immediately, if not, leave a voice mail message and Father will return your call as soon as possible.

Any hardcopy information that needs to get to the parish office, or a staff member, may be dropped off through the mail slot in the front door of the Parish Office.

Parish staff will be working from home during this time and contacting and consulting together via telephone, email and texts.
