SUPPORT ST. THOMAS AND LOWER YOUR TAXES:

You can use funds in your retirement account to support St. Thomas Aquinas. The Charitable IRA Rollover allows donors who are 70½ years or older to transfer up to $100,000.00 from a traditional or Roth IRA to a qualified charity like The Catholic Foundation, which manages The Saint Thomas Aquinas Parish Endowment Fund. An endowment fund is a longer-term, sustained investment designed to provide a perpetual source of income to our parish. Regardless of your age, you can support St. Thomas Aquinas while still qualifying for a tax deduction. Contributions to The Saint Thomas Aquinas Parish Endowment Fund can also be made in the form of cash, appreciated stocks, and other assets. For more information on how you can make a real-world impact on the future of St. Thomas Aquinas and the Catholic faith, please contact Christy Steffy at 614-443-8893, ext. 110 or csteffy@catholic-foundation.org.

CATHOLIC FOUNDATION UPDATE:

We are pleased to announce that St. Thomas Aquinas Parish has applied for and been awarded grants from the Catholic Foundation. The grants are $5,000.00 for the St. Thomas Aquinas Food Pantry and $5,000.00 for the NET Nights Teen Ministry Program. Thanks to the Catholic Foundation for their help in funding these two very important ministries.

ROOF REPAIR UPDATE:

As part of the renovation of the church, we are restoring the Stations of the Cross, which were installed in 1942, at the 100-year anniversary of the cornerstone being laid. Over the past 80 years, the stations have faded considerably from their original beauty. Todd Brausch, a religious artist from Lithopolis, Ohio has restored all 14 of the Stations of the Cross to their original state. They are wrapped in blankets and stored inside the church. They will be rehung near the end of the project. The picture shows one of the stations upon completion of the restoration.

CATHOLIC MAN OF THE YEAR:

Nominations are now open for the 2024 Catholic Man of The year. The Catholic Men's Luncheon Club is accepting nominations for the Diocese of Columbus 2024 Catholic Man of the Year. The annual award will be presented by Bishop Earl Fernandes on Friday, February 2, 2024, at the Men's Luncheon held at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus. The Catholic Man of the Year is awarded to one layman who, through his daily actions, words, and prayers, exemplifies the "good and faithful servant." The recipient will have the opportunity to share his personal testimony during the ceremony. Nominations will be accepted through Sunday, December 31, 2023. For details, nomination instructions and the required online nomination form, go to <https://www.catholicmensministry.com/catholicmanoftheyear>. Submit your nomination and let us know why your parishioner, husband, father, son, uncle, brother, or friend is the Catholic Man of the Year!

UNDONE WOMEN'S CONFERENCE:

Ladies, do you desire to live in greater freedom? Are you longing for an authentic encounter with your true feminine identity? Join us for the Undone Women's Conference where you will experience a weekend of truth, beauty and transformation, as the knots of Eve's disobedience are "undone" through Mary's model of radical receptivity. Bring yourself, your mother, your sister, your adult daughters and friends. This is a weekend you won't want to miss! Undone: Freedom for the Feminine Heart will be held at St. Francis de Sales in Newark on January 25, 26 and 27. This event is being offered in person OR virtually via livestream! Register online for either experience at www.jpilhealingcenter.org. Scholarships, student and missionary discounts available. Contact Heather Stasel at hstasel@stfrancisparish.net for more information.

URGENT SUPPORT NEEDED IN THE HOLY LAND:

As the war rages on, Pope Francis is reaching out to world leaders calling for a cease-fire, entry of humanitarian aid into Gaza and the release of all hostages being held by Hamas. Due to their long-standing presence, Catholic Relief Services has been responding to meet urgent, comprehensive needs, while also monitoring possible extended needs across the region. To support their efforts, pray and consider learning more and donating to CRS at Catholic Relief Services (crs.org). For more information, contact the diocesan Social Concerns Office at socmailbox@columbuscatholic.org or call 614-224-2540.

...and help make an authentic Catholic education affordable and accessible for all!

It's true! As an Ohio taxpayer, when you make a donation to the Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund, you could receive a dollar-for-dollar credit* against your state income tax liability while creating scholarship dollars for students to attend Our Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Columbus.

Even with the recent expansion to Ohio's EdChoice Scholarship program, financial need still exists for many families. Your gift helps bridge the gap between state scholarships and the cost to educate a child while reducing your Ohio tax burden, making it a win-win for everyone!

- Designate your gift for scholarships at the school(s) of your choosing!
- Nearly $2 million in scholarships has been raised since December 2021!

*Ohio tax credit is up to $750 per person, or $1,500 if married filing jointly. Based on tax rates posted by the Ohio Department of Taxation, an individual with an annual income of $40,000 has an average state tax liability of $750. Consult a tax advisor for guidance on your specific situation. The Diocesan Education Corporation (dba Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund) is a certified scholarship granting organization (SGO) in the state of Ohio.

HORIZON OF HOPE

The First
Sunday

You Do Not Know the Time

Mark 13:33-37

Jesus tells his disciples to “Be watchful! Be alert!” because they do not know when the Lord will come. As we begin the season of Advent, we are reminded that we, too, must be watchful as we wait for the coming of the Lord.

“The season of Advent, which we begin again today, restores this horizon of hope, a hope which does not disappoint because it is founded on God’s Word. A hope which does not disappoint, simply because the Lord never disappoints! He is faithful!”

— Pope Francis,
Angelus, December
1, 2013

There are two temptations behind today’s Gospel. The first is to presume that since we have been waiting for so long the Second Coming won’t be anytime soon and that we have more than enough time to get ready. The other is to assume the Second Coming is imminent and to live in fearful predictions of the end of days. But neither of these is the Catholic position. As Catholics, we use the opportunities of our daily lives to grow in our relationship with God, while still being aware that this world is not our final home. The season of Advent calls us to live in the present while looking forward to the future. We both celebrate the season of waiting while anticipating the happiness of Christmas.

POINTS TO PONDER

- What am I waiting for this Advent?
- How can I make this Advent season a new beginning?
- How can I pay full attention to the grace of the present, while remembering the past and anticipating the future?

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

The Immaculate Conception

During the First Week of Advent this year we celebrate one of the holy days of obligation — the Immaculate Conception on December 8. Commemorating Mary's conception without the stain of original sin, this feast is an ideal time to renew our baptismal promises — and remember that through our baptism we are brought into new life with Christ.

FAMILY FOCUS Advent Wreath

An Advent wreath customarily has three purple candles, symbolizing penance and waiting, and one pink candle (for the third Sunday) representing hope. This year, consider adding a different-colored pillar candle in the center of the ring each week. On the first week, use a blue candle for the Old Testament prophets who heralded the coming of the Messiah. On the second Sunday, place a white candle for the angel Gabriel who announced the virgin birth. On the third Sunday, use a green candle for the shepherds who were watching their flocks in the field. Then, on the last Sunday, light a gold candle for the Magi who brought their precious gifts to the Christ child.

Catechism CONNECTION

“When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming (cf. Rev 22:17). By celebrating the precursor's birth and martyrdom, the Church unites herself to his desire: ‘He must increase, but I must decrease (Jn 3:30).’” — Catechism of the Catholic Church, 524

HEROES OF HOPE

SAINT JUAN DIEGO

Saint Juan Diego never expected to see the Virgin Mary as he walked the 15 miles to attend Mass on December 9, 1531. Much to his shock, a beautiful young woman dressed like an Aztec princess appeared to him and, speaking in his own language, told him to go to the bishop and request that a chapel be built on the hill where she was standing. When the bishop resisted, the young woman gave Juan Diego a sign — roses blooming in winter — which he gathered into his tilma, a long cloak. When he presented them to the bishop, an image of Our Lady miraculously appeared on the tilma. The image, which has not deteriorated over the centuries, is called Our Lady of Guadalupe. Saint Juan Diego, pray for us!

*Feast Day:
December 9*

ADVENT PRAYER Come, O Lord!

“For they see directly, before their eyes, the Lord's return to Zion.” — Isaiah 52:8

Lord, help us to wait with patience and anticipation, not caught up in the rush of the season, but resting in your ever-present love.
