MASS OF THE RITE OF LECTOR:

Bishop Earl K. Fernandes recently celebrated Mass for the Rite of Lector for the incoming permanent deacons at Community of St. Joseph Cathedral & Holy Cross Church. Many clergy from around the diocese concelebrated, and deacons Steve Petrill, Paul Zemanek and Dave Bezusko assisted. The Rite of Lector is one of many steps during the six-year process of men entering the permanent diaconate. Permanent deacons assist priests with Masses, marriage preparation, funerals and give homilies.

Congratulations Rob Rodgers, Let us rejoice and pray for Rob on his journey toward permanent diaconate in our Parish!

THE APPEAL 2025:

As we enter this season of Thanksgiving, we pause to reflect on the many blessings God has given us, our families, our parish community, and the gift of faith that unites us in love and service. This time of year reminds us that gratitude naturally leads to generosity. Together, we have the opportunity to share our blessings by supporting The 2025 Appeal, which helps our diocese continue its mission to serve those in need, support our parishes and schools, and strengthen our ministries of faith and formation. We are grateful to all who have already made a gift or pledge to this year's Appeal. If you have not yet participated, we invite you to prayerfully consider joining us. Every gift — no matter the size — brings us closer to reaching our parish goal of $64,726.28 and ensures that our community continues to thrive in faith and service. We only need $22,147.92 to reach our goal.

To donate:

- Use a pledge envelope available in the pews or the back table of the church
- Or give securely online at columbuscatholicgiving.org

Let us give thanks for the many ways God is at work among us, and let our gratitude shine through our shared commitment to the mission of the Church. "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever." (Psalm 107:1) Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joyful Thanksgiving!

PIVOTAL PLAYERS PREMIER SESSION:

St. Thomas Aquinas – The Theologian The relationship of faith and reason is under intense scrutiny in an age beholden to the competing claims of fundamentalism and secularism. So-called “new atheists” insist that the claims of religion amount to mere superstition, a retrograde hold-over from a time long ago. Others insist that the life of faith is a retreat into emotions and subjectivism. St. Thomas Aquinas anticipated these objections and trends and demonstrated that to believe is to think and that the life of the mind is integral to life in Christ.

Looking for fellowship, faith, and a way to grow spiritually while serving others?
We warmly invite all women of our parishes to join the Catholic Women of Faith as we begin a new year together.

Our first meeting of the year will be held on Monday, January 12, 2026, at 5:00 p.m.

This gathering is a wonderful opportunity to:

- Meet our new officers for 2026–2027
- Learn about our mission and upcoming plans for the year
- Discover how you can share your gifts and become involved
- Enjoy fellowship with other women of faith from our parish community

We are also blessed to welcome Father Stephen Ondrey, who will share reflections on his many pilgrimages to Medjugorje and speak about why this sacred journey holds a special place in his heart. Time will be provided for questions and discussion.

Whether you are a longtime member or have never attended before, all women are welcome. Bring a friend, come as you are, and see how Catholic Women of Faith can enrich your spiritual life while building meaningful friendships. Light refreshments will be served. We hope to see you there!

ST. JOHN NEUMANN

Saint of the Day: January 5 • Patron Saint of Educators/Teachers

Perhaps because the United States got a later start in the history of the world, it has relatively few canonized saints, but their number is increasing.

Saint John Neumann was born in what is now the Czech Republic. After studying in Prague, he came to New York at 25 and was ordained a priest. He did missionary work in New York until he was 29, when he joined the Redemptorists and became its first member to profess vows in the United States. He continued missionary work in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, where he became popular with the Germans.

As bishop of Philadelphia, he organized the parochial school system into a diocesan one, increasing the number of pupils almost twentyfold within a short time.

Gifted with outstanding organizing ability, he drew into the city many teaching communities of sisters and the Christian Brothers. During his brief assignment as vice provincial for the Redemptorists, he placed them in the forefront of the parochial movement.

Well-known for his holiness and learning, spiritual writing and preaching, on October 13, 1963, Saint John Neumann became the first American bishop to be beatified. Canonized in 1977, he is buried in St. Peter the Apostle Church in Philadelphia.
